TIMES TO remember

Q: What memories do you have of Fowler High School?

A: "Best Friends, Homework, Failure, Hard Work, Lost Friends, Hate, Achievement; they are all in a way special - who would I be without them." -Pam Moore

"The oral abuse given to me by all my teachers." -Jim Spicer

"No specific memories, besides band camp (of course)." -Sara Thelen

"Winning in sports - to have the feeling of being #1." -Jarrod Miller

"Playing in the Dome and the Breslin Center." -Bruce Hungerford

"I think I will forget many things about high school, but I will never forget the cross team, the coach or the memories we shared." -Amy Weber

"Lockers that don't open." -Tracie Koenigsknecht

"The memories I have of the cross country teams I was a part of and the coach I had are unreplaceable." -Gina Feldpausch

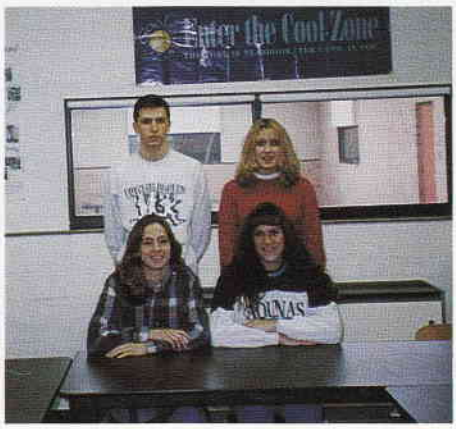

"Pep assemblies, the Silverdome, the lunch room boycott, the constant break-down of the computers, and the naked guy in the locker room." -Tonya Bentley

"The smell of the hallway and no heat in the winter." -Darlene Simon

"...basketball quarter finals against Detroit Holy Redeemer." -Sarah Pohl

"When I was on two state championship football teams." -Jason Pohl

"My best memory is seeing the guys in our class go to the Dome. It was special because I was so happy for them, and I think it will be the best memory our class will ever have together." -Kerri Thelen
