What has been your most memorable experience since you started high school?

"My first day here at O-E! I was just running around and trying to find my classrooms. Between classes I fought with my locker, but now we're pretty good friends!" -Fabienne Brunner

"I don't know, there are a lot: America in general, going to football games, my driver's license for only $12, new subjects in school, and meeting new people." -Arno Tersteeg

"The day Coach B. yelled at me during practice my junior year." -Mike Long

"Throwing water on Christy Rockafellow in the Junior Play." -Carl Winans

"When we went to competition in Owosso for band and Pam Nixon pulled the chair out as I was about to sit down. I fell on my butt in front of our band and some Owosso band people." -Heather Hall

"My most memorable experience was to be on the Homecoming Court. I loved that honor and I love my queenie Heidi." -Jessica Bishop

"When Chad Wood interviewed Jon Stanton live on the air with Parrity Miller, Holly Hibbard, Mrs.Lewis, and myself watching." -Heather Dennison

"My most memorable experience would be playing in the football playoffs and almost losing the game because my guy got by me on the last play of the game." -Mike Loynes

"Driver's training with Amber Nethaway and Christine Palatka." -Lucia Stenger

"The Junior Play." -Nathan Lawrence

